

GUESTS

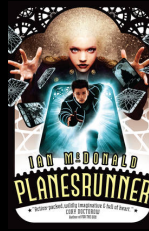

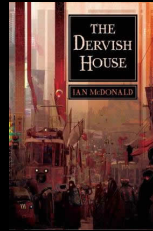

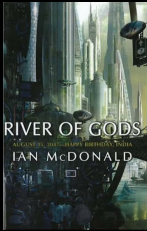

Ian McDonald

We are thrilled to once again have Belfast's very own Ian McDonald back at TitanCon 2012. Ian was our Guest of Honour last year and he enjoyed it so much he was pleased to be invited to come back again this year.

Ian is a science-fiction novelist best known for his BSFA award winning and Hugo nominated novels River of Gods (2004), Brasyl (2007) and The Dervish House (2010). Ian won the 2007 Hugo Award for Best Novelette for The Djinn's Wife (2006). Ian's most recent publication is Planesrunner, the first book of a young reader's series.

The award winning novel The Dervish House (2010) took us to Istanbul, Turkey in the year 2025. It is currently being developed as a TV series.

Peadar Ó Guilín

Peadar will be hosting the Masquerade again this year.

We invite you to come be enslaved by Peadar Ó Guilín.

In September 2007 Peadar Ó Guilín published his first novel, The Inferior. It tells the story of Stopmouth and his family who must battle for survival in a world of tribal societies. To live they must hunt rival species or negotiate flesh-trade with those who crave meat of the freshest human kind. There is but one law: Eat or be Eaten.

The second book in the series, The Deserter, was published 5 May 2011 and continues Stopmouth's journey as he attempts to understand The Roof and find the mysterious woman he loves who fell from it.

